NEW BUSINESS

1. Mayor Mollaun advised that the Lions Club would like to have their annual opening day parade. It will be the same route as usual. Jamie Chase is still involved with the project; Chief Don Combs stated that he would get a hold of him to confirm. A motion was requested by Mayor Mollaun to approve the opening day parade for April 21st.

Motion: Aaron Cook

Second: Tony Abbott

Motion carried.

2. Paul Seymour Jr. spoke about Todd Creech Memorial Park. There is an issue with homes on Water Street not taking care of their yards; these yards face the park. He asked that Carl Fryman be sent to address this issue with an agreement that home owners will maintain if the City removed the trees and wood.

3. An update was provided for the Ludlow Hill park lights. Olin advised that everything is in now and he would reach out to Kim to follow up on the project.
